

The Wellington first opened in its current form in 2005. In 2005 we stumbled across the extraordinary palate of Chester Osbourn and have celebrated his amazing dArenberg wines ever since.

We have dallied with other wine makers and experimented with other continents but as we did so we became horribly like others...

So here we are in 2019, back to the future, amazing wines, almost all from one mans palate. We think these big full delicious dArenberg wines are an un matched compliment for our fresh food kitchen, we hope you agree.

We particularly hope you will try some of the new dArenberg Polly when you think of ordering a glass of Prosecco.

For the classic wine lovers amongst us know that Chester is one of us and builds wines that reflect a passion for many fine classic wines of the old world.

The Wellington.
